DenverWorks Receives $35,000

Denver, Colorado – DenverWorks announces that it has received a $35,000 Daniels Fund grant to support general operations.

DenverWorks is a faith based non-profit that exists to restore hope and empower people to self-sufficiency through employment. In 2010 we are celebrating our 15th year of helping those with obstacles to employment. We assist our clients in overcoming major barriers through one-on-one case management and a variety of other services.

“Never before has there been a time more important than now for the programs and services that DenverWorks provides. This grant will enable us to continue offering hope and help to a growing population of jobseekers. Our staff remains committed to serving every person in need”, said Sandy Blaylock, Executive Director.

Bill Daniels, a pioneer in cable television known for his kindness and generosity to those in need, established the Daniels Fund to provide grants and scholarships to Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming. For more information, please visit www.danielsfund.org.
